VIII Unfinished Business:

~2018 Registration Update: 19 Flag, 17 Mighty Mites, 24 Mites, 19 Midgets. Total 79 players registered as of June 30th. Jim expects approximately 10 more players to register before the season. Numbers are lower from 2017, but numbers are higher than earlier years. If player is registered after July 15th, the club cannot guarantee that the jersey will be here in time for pictures or season.

~2018 Homecoming: Jim Krick reporting. Cocalico has not responded to our request to play them for our homecoming game. He will attempt to contact them one more time. Chris Morgan has a contact at Hamburg Football club and we will ask them to play our Homecoming game if no response from Cocalico

VIII New Business:

~Suit-up: Need coaches to help with suit-ups.

~Coaches Applications: Chris Morgan will be in charge of ensuring that coaches complete applications and concussion training.

~Child Abuse Clearances: Coaches are required to get new child abuse clearances this year, even if their 60 month period is not expired. The club will reimburse any fee incurred by coaches for this clearance.

~Concussion Training: Scheduled for August 6, 2018, 6 p.m. at Denver Fire Hall. This event is being hosted by Cocalico Football club and presented by Hershey Medical Center. If coaches do not attend this they will be required to complete concussion training videos.

~Open Floor:

~Still waiting for approval of Use of Facilities for Mini Camp (August 7-9th). Lisa will contact Wendy Bright.

~25 kids are registered for Coach Moyer's CW Football Camp.

~Tom Hackman is getting an estimate on having a pulling mobility chute fabricated. This equipment usually retails for $1200.

~The board agreed to purchase an additional 42" tackle wheel.

*Next meeting: Monday, July 30th @ 7pm @ Paradise by the Slice, Wernersville
